

EXERCISE #1:

Write your own song for one of the basic song structures.

1. Create whatever chord progressions you want in each section.
2. See if you can contrast each section by using different chord progressions and varying the melody.